Regulations for the use of 360° EXTREM Indoor Freestyle Centre

- The active user has decided to participate, of his/her own free will, in the leisure and entertainment activities offered and organised by the 360°EXTREM Indoor Freestyle Centre, which are carried out in the facilities in Avinguda Santa Coloma nº115, de Andorra la Vella.
- The active user shall be able to use these installations during the period of the ticket that he/she has bought.
- Signatory of this document is fully aware of the risks involved in practising freestyle in any of its modalities (skate, roller, scooter, ski, BMX, snowboard, etc...), including those inherent in using the ramps and other typical facilities when practising the various freestyle disciplines. He/she is also aware that freestyle is an extreme sport and, therefore, potentially dangerous and that it implies risks of a physical and material nature, in which accidents can occur that can lead to death as well as injuries to the person practising it and/or to third parties.
- Signatory of this document declares that in knowledge of the risk of freestyle activity, He/she hereby states that he/she is in an ideal condition, both physically as well as psychically, and that he/she has a sufficient level of knowledge of the technique to be able to practice it in the 360° EXTREM Indoor Freestyle Centre facilities, aware of the risk that its use involves and, therefore fully accept all the responsibility derived from its use, whether in the case of death or injuries to myself or to third parties, as well as damages to the facilities and my own material or that of third parties.
- Signatory of this document declares that he/she is fully familiar with the conditions of use of the 360° EXTREM Indoor Freestyle Centre facilities contained in its regulations for use of which he/she has been provided with a copy, that he/she has read and that he/she accepts, in particular with regard to safety measures, regulations for use and behaviour and practices that are completely forbidden. He/she guarantees to comply with them strictly and to use the facilities responsibly, as well as to comply with the instructions given by the staff and the signalling in the centre. He/she accepts the fact that non-compliance may lead to his/her expulsion from the centre, however long the duration of his/her membership may be, without the right to any refund for this reason and without affecting his/her obligation to compensate for any damages he/she might have caused to anyone or to the facilities, whether fraudulently or deliberately.
- The active user will use the 360° EXTREM Indoor Freestyle Centre facilities under his/her own exclusive responsibility, waiving the right to take out any action, be it criminal, civil, administrative or of any other nature, including out of court, against the company that runs the Centre, as a result of possible injuries and/or damages that he/she might suffer as a result of practising freestyle in this centre and/or, in general, the use of these facilities.
- He/she understands and complies with the regulations for use of the facilities of the Centre, as well as the instructions and signalling on the use of the equipment and material
- The signatory of this document declares that he/she is familiar with the fact:
  - That his/her personal data contained in this document, as well as that which he/she may provide or may be obtained by the company running the centre by any means during his/her membership at the 360° EXTREM Indoor Freestyle Centre will be incorporated into a computer file belonging to the company running the Centre, to be processed. He/she particularly gives his/her consents so that the company running the centre may take images of me and that therefore, he/she may be photographed or recorded while participating in activities in the facilities at the centre.
  - That the personal data obtained by the means indicated, will be processed in keeping with Law 15/2003, of 18th December, on the protection of personal data and that suitable measures of security and confidentiality shall be applied to this data.
  - That he/she has the right, with regard to the data obtained as mentioned, to exercise the rights recognised in Law 15/2003, of 18th December, on personal data protection, especially the right to access, rectify or cancel data or oppose it, if relevant, as well as to revoke my consent for ceding data.
  - That he/she expressly authorises the company running the 360° EXTREM Indoor Freestyle Centre to:
    - a) Send me information by any means, including electronic means, concerning the promotion of the centre and the activities that are carried out in it.
    - b) Give up my personal data to companies in the business group to which the company running the centre belongs in order to be informed about their products, services and commercial promotions, through any kind of communication, including electronic means.
    - c) That the material obtained through photographs and recordings, as mentioned above:
      - May be used for the purpose of marketing or promoting the centre, with the right to revoke this authorisation at any given time, by writing to the company running the centre, in the form and at the address indicated above, for carrying out the right of cancelling, opposing and revoking their consent for the cession of personal data.
      - May be used as evidence in a lawsuit.
    - d) Process and segment this data, applying the relevant techniques, with the aim of optimising the promotion of the centre and of the activities carried out in it.
